Special features and options

In the course "Contemporary Watercolors" we get to know a more modern form of watercolor painting in the style of Bernhard Vogel. We paint landscape pictures with watercolors in a very unconventional way. In contrast to classic and traditional watercolor technique, various aids such as white ink, pens, etc. are allowed here; indeed, they are even encouraged. The depictions should be developed and implemented very freely. However, some experience in watercolor painting is required for this course. Enjoy "free painting" with watercolors!
