Special features and options

In the course "Contemporary Watercolors" we will learn a more modern way of watercolor painting in the style of Bernhard Vogel. Here we paint landscape pictures with watercolors in a very unconventional manner. In contrast to classical and traditional watercolor techniques, various tools such as white ink, pens etc. are allowed here; yes even desired. The representations should be implemented and worked out very freely. However, some experience in watercolor painting is already required for this course. Lots of fun with "Free Painting" using watercolors! Your Course Instructor
