Special features and options

In the course "Contemporary Watercolors" we get to know a more modern kind of watercolor painting in the style of Bernhard Vogel. Here we paint landscape pictures with watercolors in a very unconventional way. In contrast to classical and traditional watercolor technique, various aids such as white ink, pens, etc. are allowed here; indeed, they are even welcome. The depictions should be developed and created very freely. However, some prior experience in watercolor painting is required for this course. Enjoy "free painting" with watercolors!
